

Helsingborg International Connections

Invites you to our upcoming Event @ Panel Discussion on April 23rd:

“Business & Networking in Sweden”

Inspired by topics covered by speakers Anna Persson & Lynn Ware
our main points of discussion will include:

Anna Persson

- Ex-pat life abroad
 - Spouse/partner career development
 - Starting your own business in a new country
 - Cracking the code of the Swedish job-market
- Returning to the Sweden as a professional re-patriot
- How to build your personal & professional network
 - Discovering your transferable skills
 - Swedish CV-writing criteria

Lynn Ware

“During the evening, our speaker Anna Persson will talk about her experiences of living and working abroad as an ex-pat, the challenges she faced on her return to the Swedish job market, how she has worked to overcome them and the valuable lessons learned along the way. Anna is specialised in full life-cycle recruitment, networking and ex-pat career development. She is currently holding a position as Career Adviser for international students at Malmö University. Her e-book on “Mastering the Art of Effective Business Networking, as well as a “CV-writing in Sweden” guide, will be shared with HIC members and those signing up for this event.

Lynn Ware will talk about her experience of living and working abroad as an ex-pat as well as her move to Sweden and the opportunities and challenges she faced as a businesswoman. She will also discuss how to identify transferable key skills when looking for employment in another country. As a qualified Intensive Care Nurse and a former CEO of a Medical Device Company in Australia and New Zealand, Lynn started her own company when she arrived in Sweden. She provides Management Consultancy with a focus on Global executive search, where she finds and attracts senior executives for clients globally. As well as running a distributor business, most recently Lynn partnered with one of the fastest growing Life Sciences companies in the world. She is building a team of business people to expand a global brand and helping people improve their health and wellbeing.”*

We welcome you to forward your questions for inclusion in the discussion on the evening to: info@hiconnections.eu
In addition to our main speakers, we will also have representatives from regional recruitment organisations present and prepared to answer your queries.
